

EUROMED YOUTH IV Program

This program is funded by the European Union

Call for Proposal for Submission of Requests for Financial Support for Projects within the Euro-Med Youth Programme

Call for Proposal Number 1/2015 Budget Line: ENPI/2009/20527

The EuroMed Youth Unit (EMYU), at the Israel Youth Exchange Authority, is pleased to announce, that in accordance with the agreement with the European Union, the latest has allocated funds for youth and young people exchange projects within the framework of the EuroMed Youth Programme in the following categories:

- Action 1: Euro-Med Youth Exchanges
- Action 2: Euro-Med Youth Voluntary Service
- Action 3: Euro-Med Youth Training and Networking

Relevant documentation, including the EU guidelines and application forms for submission of financial support, as well as information on the EuroMed Youth Programme Phase IV, can be found at the web sites:

www.euromedyouth.net

<http://www.israel.euromedyouth.net/>

<https://www.facebook.com/Europe.in.Israel?ref=hl>

Applications should be submitted on European Union forms in English only to the EMYU at the Israel Youth Exchange Authority, at 22 Dam Ha'Maccabim St., Tel Aviv, by hand or via messenger, by July 30th, 2015, at 16:00 Tel Aviv local time. Requests received after this date and time will be considered for the next funding period.

The EMYU at the Israel Youth Exchange Authority will organize two info sessions for those interested in submitting requests for support, in the following dates:

Info session for Hebrew speakers will be held on June 8, 2015, from 9am to 3pm, at Bar Ilan University, Ramat Gan.

Info session for Hebrew and Arabic speakers will be held on June 11th, 2015, from 9am to 3pm, at Crown Plaza Hotel, Haifa.

Registration in advanced is required; participation in the info days is free of charge.

For submission of applications, and registration or further information regarding the info days, please contact the EMYU Israel via email karina.cherfas@euromedyouth.net or phone no. 054-2171467.